

Application for the Kallan Leigh Hammaker Memorial Scholarship

The Kallan Leigh Hammaker Memorial Scholarship is in memory of Kallan Leigh Hammaker who passed away on Easter Sunday 2007 after a 4 year battle with a Pediatric Malignant Brain Tumor. Kallan received the majority of her treatment, including a stem cell transplant, at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center. The Med Center was a "home away from home" for Kallan for the 4 years she was sick.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. A survivor of a Pediatric Brain Tumor.
2. Majority of the treatments for the Brain Tumor must have taken place at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center.
3. Student must have a desire to pursue any type of post-secondary education at any institution they choose.

Required:

1. Completed application
2. An essay of at least 250 words outlining your desire to pursue a post-secondary education and how being a survivor of a Pediatric Brain Tumor has changed your life.

3. A letter of recommendation from your treating Oncologist at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center or a Pediatric Oncologist on staff at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center who can confirm your treatment.
4. A letter of recommendation from a teacher from your high school

Process:

Each application will be reviewed, along with the necessary attachments, by the Board of Directors of Kallan's Klan, with input from the staff of the Penn State Hershey Medical Center including social workers, nurses, staff and attending pediatric oncologists. Rewards of each scholarship will be in the amount of $1,500 to be spent in any way the student needs in order to pursue a post-secondary education.

If more than one candidate who has applied and is eligible, multiple scholarships may be awarded at the discretion of the Board of Directors of Kallan's Klan.

The award can be renewed on a yearly basis for a maximum of 4 years by submitting a "Letter of Continuance" for years 2 thru 4 after the award.
